Kevin Kotsur

Kevin Kotsur is a 20-year veteran of the Tempe Police Department, and currently holds the position of Assistant Chief of Police over the Investigations Division. During his 20-year tenure, he has managed internal affairs, implemented the Police Physical fitness Program, chaired the Cultural Diversity Team, administered operations for Superbowl XXX, directed the Public Safety Response for the Rio Salado Project and is currently serving as Lead Negotiator with the Tempe Police Officer’s Association for labor negotiations. His duties as the Investigations Division Assistant Chief of Police include the managing the Criminal Investigations Bureau, the Traffic Bureau, Special Investigations Bureau and the Special Services Bureau.

Kevin has received numerous awards for his public service, including but not limited to the Outstanding Teamwork and Public Contribution Award presented by the American Society for Public Administration. He is a graduate of Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command, a graduate of A.S.U. with a B.A. in organizational Communication; and is presently pursuing his Master degree in Business Administration at Western International University; he is involved in many other community service organizations such as the East Valley Addiction Council and Tempe Rotary.

Service Above Self

I found a quote from Robert Greenleaf, author of "Servant Leadership: A Journey into the Nature of Legitimate Power and Greatness" recently. He states:

"The servant-leader is servant first. It begins with the natural feeling that one wants to serve. ...The only difference manifests itself in the care taken first to make sure that other people’s highest priority needs are being served. The best test, and difficult to administer, is: do those served grow as persons; do they, while being served become healthier, wiser, freer, more autonomous, and more likely themselves to serve. And what is the effect on the least privileged in society; will they benefit, or at least, not be further deprived."

Our tagline as an organization is "Service Above Self." As I reflected over our past year’s accomplishments, I could see that in almost all cases, our club lived by this tagline. I think that the philosophy of Robert Greenleaf was manifest in our projects, our sponsorships, our mentoring, and even in our fellowship.

Thank-you for the individual service you have rendered. However, we must do more. Please continue to serve our community in any way you can. As people see your service, they will know you are a Rotarian.

Daryl Agnew

Our friend Daryl Agnew passed away around 1:30 am on the 14th of June.

Daryl, a Rotary Club member for 26 years, was a past president of Tempe Rotary and a Paul Harris Fellow.

There will be a service for Daryl at Bethany Community Church on Wednesday June 19. The church is located on the northwest corner of Price Road (101 Freeway) and Guadalupe Road. Their phone number is 480-831-5005.

Daryl will be missed by our Rotary Family.

Word of the Week

Ni•di•co•lous

Pronunciation: [ni-'di-kê-lès]

Definition 1: Nest-dwelling, nesting, usually referring to birds whose offspring are helpless at birth and must remain in a nest until they mature.

Etymology: Latin nidus "nest" + col(ere) "(to) inhabit" + -ous.

"A recent article in the USA Today detailed the efforts of major national restaurant chains to enhance their food to-go trade, known in the biz as "H.M.R." for Home Meal Replacement-in response to the nidicolous tendencies of America's dual-income families. People are simply too tired to cook, but want to retreat to the restful and secure surroundings of their domicile to enjoy prepared meals."
